

If your family arrived before 1924 see my book Shipping and Migration Research on the Internet

The 2nd edition of How Did They Get Here? Arrivals after 1924 is suitable for both beginners and experienced researchers. Use it to start your research, expand on what you know and learn about the latest Internet resources and search techniques. It has been fully revised and expanded by 12 pages to include the latest Internet resources and a new index. It is designed to help you find arrival and migration records for those who came to Australia after 1924. Online resources such as indexes, databases, digital records, newspapers and eBooks are included with details on how to use them effectively. There are also lots of useful tips and hints throughout the book that will save you time, money and frustration.
